

3, 2	Today at culinary class, we made chocolate chip cookies. One of a boy made a huge cookie so, it was funny. At biology class, we and my friend created a DNA structure. We used hot glue gun, pipe cleaner, colored cotton balls and so on. When I got home I saw hail (climate) for the first time in the U.S. It was interesting.
3, 3	Today, I made yakisoba with my HM for dinner. My HF really love yakisoba and we made it many times so we almost remembered the recipe! But we buy the noodle with bigger package so we always struggle to make it in smaller pan. I wanna make it better next time.
3, 4	Today, I went to a Dattodil Queen Coronation with my HF and my HT's friend. It's a ceremony to decide a dattodil queen for this year. Princesses did a short speech and answered a question. The question was "What quality is makes a leader" Everyone was so good and the queen was a princess from Lakes High School. After the coronation over, we went to Wendy's for eat some food. It was fun.
3, 5	Today, after school, I made a hand made ring with my HT. She learned how to make it at 3D art class today so she taught me about it. We used some handicraft strings and we braided it. It was very easy than I thought and I was cute. Also, after we had dinner, we made some fruity lemonade. We used strawberry and raspberry. It was so good.
3, 7	Today at culinary class, we made berry scones. We made the dough yesterday so we put blueberries but the color of the dough changed little bit blue. When we bake it we put it into a oven about 30 minutes, took it, put butter and honey on top, and we baked about 10 minutes more. I took long time to cook, but it taste was so good. I want to make it again.
3, 11	Today, my HM cooked some crepes for breakfast so we had some. My HF had to packing and cleaning for move to their new house so they worked on them and I worked on my homework my homework. After we had lunch, I read a book with my HM.
3, 17	This morning, my HF and I went to senior center to get some breakfast. It was fundraiser for dattodil parade. We had pancakes, juice, fruits, and so on. Also, we talked with a man who working at the senior center. We talked about Japan, my HT (dattodil princess), exchange program and so on.

- 3/18 Today, at culinary class, we made monkey bread. I didn't know about the monkey bread well but my HF knew about it and it was my HT's favorite. I was so surprised and I was excited to make the bread. We already made the dough, so we baked it today. I enjoyed to cook it and it taste was also good.
- 3/25 Today, I went to shopping with my HF and my HM's son. Me and my HF went a clothes shop and we got some clothes. It was very cheap and we did good shopping. After that, we went to a free market. There were many dresses, dress shoes, and jewelries for prom. These were all free so we got some of them. After that all of us went to Costco. My HM did grocery shopping and we had pizza. It was fun! Today, my HT's friend came to my HF's house. My HT, her friend and me watched a movie (Howl's moving castle) and we played air hockey. (My HF has an air hockey table.) I haven't played it for a long time so I really enjoyed it!
- 3/28 Today after me and my HT came home from school, my HT helped me with my homework. It was for English class and I had to remember difficult vocabularies for a quiz. She told me how to pronounce the words and she told me the meaning of them. It was really helpful and I could remember the all vocabularies correctly. Today, there was a choir concert. Middle school students, some select choir members and high school student sang songs. All performance was so cool and I had a great time. Also, it was my first choir concert because I was sick last time. I was very nervous and I was shaking. But after finished the concert, my friends and my HF told me "Good job!" "You were amazing!" so I was glad to heard them and it was makes me happy.
- 3/30 Today's school was very short schedule because of conference day. I went to 1-3 period class. After that, my HT had to work on something at math class and art class so we stayed at school about two hours. After we came home, we watched a fantasy drama. We watched two episodes. My HT had seen the drama before so she explained to me about the basic story. The drama was so good. I want to watch more episodes.

School

There is a program for students to take college-level classes and learn about various professional jobs. (hair-make up artist, Programmers, engineers, etc.)

Juniors and Seniors can take those classes.

Some classes, they will be able to get a job without going to college. (after they graduated)

House

My HF preparing to move.

(creaking around their house and started packing)

Me and my HM started to read a new book. It is "twilight" I haven't heard about twilight before so I didn't know anything but, everyone says "twilight is good...!" "You should watch the movie!!" and my HT said, "I'm not gonna read it again lol It was too much love story..." So I'm very curious about this book.

Buying and Selling a House (in the U.S.)

When people buy a house, they can visit houses before those will be empty. (I'm not sure it is only American thing or not.)

If people who want to sell their house has not sell the house has not sell the house, they can not be a owner of their next house.
