

4, 1	Today, my HM and I cleaned the house in the morning. My HM ironed curtains, we cleaned the floor, and my HF have bunnies so we moved the bunny's house. In the evening, we went to a daffodil parade. It was raining and so cold but the parade was fun. The daffodil princesses rode a float and each school's band played music. It was so good.
4, 13	Now is spring vacation and no school today so my HT went to work with her mother and I stayed at home. I watched C-drama because my HM recommended the show. The characters speak so fast so it was difficult to read subtitle but the show was so good. After my HF came home, a realtor came to my HF's house to check the house to sell the house. After he ^{some} left, my HF and I
4, 14	had dinner and me and my HM watched ^{some} drama together. Today, my HT and I was free day. My HT was interested in the Chinese show so we watched it together. After my HM came home, we had dinner, and we watched drama again.
4, 15	Today, my HF and I went to a road trip. We went to the Mt. St. Helens. It is one of the famous mountains in Washington. There was still snow on the mountain and the scenery was so pretty. We took pictures and we had sandwiches for lunch. After that, we were going to go to the Mt. Rainier but weather was not good so we didn't go there. I was happy to went
4, 16	to a road trip for the first time in a long time. Today, I went to my HM's office together because after my HM finished her work, we had to go to my HT's daffodil event at same area. While my HM is working, I studied English and I read a book. At the event, we had special dinner with the daffodil princesses and other people who involved in the event. After that, we watched a dance
4, 14	show by the daffodil princesses. Today, after me and my HT got home from school, we ^{were} ing work on our stuff individually. And then, people came into the house to look up inside. They didn't tell about it to my HF's realtor so we didn't know about it. We left the house, and we waited until they left. We were so surprised so we decided to close the gate when we got home.
4, 15	Today is Open House Day. It's a day anybody can come to the house to look up inside. We had to left at 2pm - 4pm. So my HF invited an exchange student and we went to the spring fair. We watched animals such as rabbits and alpacas, we had snacks, and we rode roller coasters. I had never been to the spring fair before so it was very interesting and fun.

4, 16	Today, I went to malls with my HM to get my prom shoes. My foot is very small so it was difficult to find better dress shoes for me. I bought a light gold pair of shoes. It's so pretty and I love it. I'm so excited to go to prom.
4, 18	Today, I made a coffee cake in Culinary class. At Choir class, the choir teacher was absent so another teacher came to our class. We learned a Queen's song. At English class, we read an article about financial literacy course to write an essay. At US history class, we watched a video about the cold war. At math class, we solved math problems about figure similarity (図形の相似).
1	At biology class, we researched about an topic that biology teacher decided for an presentation. I worked on it with a classmate. I was happy that she talked to me for the first time.
4, 22	Today, I went to a prom with my HT. The theme of prom was "Old Hollywood" so I wore black dress and my HT wore pearl accessories. At the party, we took pictures and had some food with our friends. And then, we took off high heels and danced with music. I've always wanted to go to prom since when I was live in Japan but I was thinking prom is only senior can go to, so I was so happy that I could go to prom.
4, 24	Today was testing day at school so each class had 2 hours and everyone took 1st-3rd per. class. My 1st per. class is Culinary and I made burritos (burrito). My 2nd per. class is Choir and I learned a lot of new songs. My 3rd per. class is English. There was testing but I didn't have to take it so I went an another English class and I worked on my homework.
4, 29	Today, I went to a Puyallup fair with my HM. Also, another AC and an exchange student from Thailand came and we made our own booth to find host families for new exchange students. We introduced to people about hosting an exchange student and we found some people who want to become their host family. Also, I was wearing Yukata so some people realized it and they talked to me. I was happy about it too. Today, I knew that finding a host family is not easy. I thought I have to thank to my HF that they chose me and they are so kind and nice to me.

When there was a fire evacuation at school, I was surprised that everyone was talking during the entire time (including teachers) and they were not hurry or serious getting.

Also, we immediately went to back to our classes after we gathered at outside.

I told about these to my friend.

She said, "Some school have to be serious when they do a fire evacuation but our school doesn't really care."

My HF's house

- Preparing to move their house
- We went to some doll/doll events.
- We went a road trip
- I helped with the house-work (chores)
- I made some Japanese food with my HM.
- I read a book with my HM. (I'm very close to finishing the book!)

【日本と米国の違いについて】

- Many American people have big dogs. (When I went to a Puyallup fair, most people were walking around the fair with their dogs. Some of the dogs are so huge as I ever saw before. I thought it's very unique to the country. when to my HF about)
- They don't hang their laundry outside. (I introduced my Japanese hometown on google map, they found that people hanging their laundry outside and they were so surprised!)
